SMALL GROUPS

Building Friendships, Growing Spiritually, Blessing Your Community

Small Groups Open House | Sunday, January 15 after Worship Services

God made our hearts to yearn for relationship. In relationship, God reveals Himself to us, and through relationships He allows us to love and care for one another. Small Groups seek: relationships that build into friendships; spiritual growth, because Scripture shapes our lives; to bless the community, by serving our neighbors. Small Groups meet in homes, organized by high school districts. Meeting days and times vary by group. Find a group where you belong at the Open House!

After January 15, or for more information, contact:
Rebecca Elam | 636.779.2130 or smallgroups@efree.org

Sundays, January 8–May 20 | Room 313

Homefront (parenting resources for families)

Teachers: Tom Hughes, Kevin Krosley & Adam Ward | homefront@efree.org

Our focus is to equip parents to follow God's plan in raising our children to become His children. We will examine both the "direct" teachings that the Bible offers about how to raise our children in accord with God's principles, and the "indirect" lessons we can learn from the lives of biblical families by following their good examples and avoiding their pitfalls.

Christian Ethics: Dealing with the Grey Areas of Life

Sundays, January 8–February 5 | Room 339

Young Adults (singles, single parents, married, married w/kids)

Teacher: Ryan Potter | youngadults@efree.org

This class covers topics that are foundational to the faith and is appropriate for the inquirer, new believer or mature Christian.

Is it right to lie to save a life? We will investigate questions like this as we deal with some of life's toughest issues such as abortion, euthanasia, divorce, capital punishment, in-vitro fertilization, radical terrorism, and war/civil disobedience. Drawing from the works of Norman Geisler, John MacArthur, Kerby Anderson and Charles Colson, we will wrestle with how a biblical worldview affects our answers.

FamilyLIFE in the Bible

Sundays, January 8–May 20 | Room 372

Joy Spring | Teachers: Brad Wyckhouse and Rich White | joyspring@efree.org

Everyone is part of a family in one way or another. The Bible lets us see the blessings and struggles that families experienced, just as we do today, whether they be the exuberant love of a husband and wife, the joy of children, or the intensity of sibling rivalry and the devastation of sinful acts. We will study the lessons and consequences of family life in an atmosphere of fellowship, prayer and worship.

Family Relationships

Sundays, March 11–April 1 | Chapel

Heritage Builders | Teacher: Todd Yeager | heritagebuilders@efree.org

Soul Surfer is a movie about 13-year-old Bethany Hamilton's struggles to overcome the loss of her left arm due to a shark attack, her Christian faith, and resolve to surf again. The movie will be shown on Saturday, March 10 as a social event and to kick off a month-long study on the importance of family relationships.

Following God in a Connected World: Studies in Daniel

Sundays, January 28–February 26 | Chapel

Heritage Builders | Teacher: George Hicker | heritagebuilders@efree.org

As believers, how do we handle the social pressure to conform to the world's expectations at home and work in this era of Facebook, Twitter, and

LinkedIn? Our study of Daniel will give us great insight into being a “stranger in a strange land”, including how to handle a difficult boss, co-workers and neighbors, a competitive economy, a plurality of religious beliefs, balancing life’s responsibilities, and preparing your children to go out into the world.

Jesus Followers: Character Studies of His Disciples

Sundays, January 8–May 20 | Room 341

Beacon | Teachers: Les and Kel Rohlf | beacon@efree.org

This class covers topics that are foundational to the faith and is appropriate for the inquirer, new believer or mature Christian.

Who were the earliest followers of Jesus and what enabled them to successfully spread the Good News to the known world? We’ll review each of the twelve apostles’ lives, and other selected disciples, to better understand their character, gifts, and motivation and how we can apply them to our lives. John MacArthur’s Twelve Ordinary Men will be one of our source books.

Kingdom of Heaven, Part 4

Sundays, January 8–May 20 | Room 360

Life 360 | Teacher: Mark Capron | life360@efree.org

“Kingdom of Heaven” appears 31 times in the Gospel of Matthew and is the subject of many of the 286 biblical uses of the word “kingdom”. We’ve seen that the kingdom is integral to much of Jesus’ teaching and most Christian doctrines, and that many aspects of the kingdom are “already” while others are “not yet”. We will focus on the Sermon on the Mount for a greater understanding of the who, what, when and where of this kingdom, and how we should live in light of it.

* Recognizing and Redeeming Anger

Sundays, January 8–January 22 | Room 314

Teacher: Rev. Ed Killeen, LPC | ed@killeencounseling.com

Do you strive to avoid or suppress anger? Many do—God does not. Ps. 7:11 states, “God is a just judge, a God who expresses His anger every day.” Paul wrote to the Ephesians (4:26): “Be angry and do not sin.” Unrecognized or suppressed anger is anger not submitted to God, which will eventually lead us to sin. What is anger? What unexpressed emotions lie beneath our anger? How are we to respond in a godly way? Bring your questions or submit them in advance. Rev. Killeen specializes in marriage and men’s anger issues. The class is offered to both men and women. Sign up at www.efree.org.

Re-Creation: God's Plan for the Restoration of All Things, Part 2

Sundays, January 8–May 20 | Room 315

Promise Seekers | Teacher: Larry Collett | promiseseekers@efree.org

This class covers topics that are foundational to the faith and is appropriate for the inquirer, new believer or mature Christian.

The book of Revelation was written to unveil, to bless and to be understood, as it details Christ's return to restore creation to its original perfection. The book's judgments are both punitive and restorative, for there will be no more death, crying, sorrow or pain—Christ the Creator and Redeemer will “make all things new” and the tree of life will be in the midst of the paradise of God and we will be with Him.

Revelation for Today, Chapters 4-22

Sundays, April 15–May 20 | Chapel

Heritage Builders | Teacher: Doug Pogue | heritagebuilders@efree.org

This class covers topics that are foundational to the faith and is appropriate for the inquirer, new believer or mature Christian.

We will be looking at Chapters 4-22 with a focus on obtaining a realistic and practical understanding of the end times and how God will bring about His final judgment, including: worship in heaven, the Great Tribulation, the return of the King, the Millenium, the Great White Throne Judgment and the eternal state.

Romans: Paul's Case for True Faith

Sundays, February 12–May 20 | Room 339

Young Adults (singles, single parents, married, married w/kids)

Teacher: Ryan Potter | youngadults@efree.org

This class covers topics that are foundational to the faith and is appropriate for the inquirer, new believer or mature Christian.

Arguably the most comprehensive and organized presentation of Paul's exposition of faith, Romans sets forth the foundation of Christian doctrine and clear, practical guidelines for daily Christian living. We will explore such themes as: sin, salvation, spiritual growth, God's sovereignty and service as we study chapter by chapter some of the Bible's toughest lessons.

True Life in Christ (John 13-21)

Sundays, January 8–May 20 | Room 312

What does it mean to have life in the name of Jesus? This homework-based open discussion challenges each of us to an in-depth study of God's Word and its relevancy to our lives. We all have conflict. It's usually not the big blow up, but the everyday conflicts around the breakfast table, with an overbearing boss, or a moody teenager. And as much as we hate these conflicts, we often don't know what to do about them. This DVD/Discussion study will offer the Bible's hope and practical answers to understand the root cause of conflict, what makes a good apology, what forgiveness really means, how to deal with difficult people and other questions on conflict.

Book fee: $10 per person. Sign up at www.efree.org

homebuilders@efree.org

This class covers topics that are foundational to the faith and is appropriate for the inquirer, new believer or mature Christian.

Do you really know what the Bible is all about? How can we understand the story of God - and our part in it - when it is not familiar to us? Too often we reject or accept the Bible without knowing its contents or understanding how all 66 books fit together in God's plan. This overview of the Old and New Testaments reveals Jesus Christ as our redeemer and Lord.
