A Support Group for Women in Difficult Relationships

Abigail's Daughters is a safe place to come where all discussions are held in confidence

Who We Are

Abigail's Daughters is a Christian support group for women who struggle in troubled, stressful or difficult relationships. Our goal is to provide a safe place for women to share freely, and receive understanding, support, and encouragement from other women who are or have been in similar difficult relationships. Strict confidentiality is maintained at all times.

What We Believe

We have confidence and faith in our loving God, that He has unseen purposes in every difficult circumstance of our lives, and that His will for us is to live lives of peace and joy in the midst of our circumstances.

Who Should Come

This is a ministry of First Free, but is open to any woman struggling in a difficult relationship.

Where We Meet

Abigail's Daughters meets for two hours weekly at a time and place most suitable for all participants.
