

Foreigners and Rejoicing

by Adam Bowers

January 20, 2019

1. In what ways are we foreigners in this world?
2. Have you ever experienced mistreatment or felt like an outsider because of your faith?
3. In Philippians 1:21, Paul says that living means living for Christ. How do we live for Christ?
4. Why is it important to understand that joy is for now, not just for heaven?
5. Paul believes that his presence will help the Philippian believers grow in their faith and experience joy in their faith. How do relationships with other believers help us grow and experience joy?
6. What was your biggest takeaway from this week's message and how do you plan to respond to it?
