

Lead the Way: Leadership Lessons from Nehemiah

by Adam Bowers

March 3, 2019

1. Why was Nehemiah so moved by the condition of the walls of Jerusalem?
2. What are some problems that you are uniquely aware of that affect other people?
3. Have you ever struggled with whether to help someone but decided to do it anyway?
4. If you could choose one problem that you could solve for others regardless of the cost or time required, what would it be?
5. What types of things keep you from taking action on that problem?
6. What was your biggest takeaway from this week's message and how do you plan to respond to it?
