1. Do you ever find that your prayers become automatic or just going through the motions? What can we do to pray with more clarity and belief?
2. Was there a prayer request or praise shared during the service that had a special impact on you?
3. Why is it important that we talk about our beliefs in church (for instance, about baptism), even when we may have some disagreement on those beliefs within our church?
4. Is it better for the church to take a position on most nuanced issues and exclude those who disagree or to take a position on fewer things and include people who have different views on some issues? Where is the best place to draw that line between where we take a position and where we allow for different views?
5. What was your biggest takeaway from this week's message and how do you plan to respond to it?
