

Lead the Way: Leadership Lessons from Nehemiah

by Kevin Krosley

May 5, 2019

1. Which of these leadership questions do you find most interesting? Pick one that you would like to answer in the group discussion. Discuss what factors have made your spiritual progress challenging. Explain what has helped you make progress.
 - a. Who are you currently learning from?
 - b. In addition to prayer and reading scripture, what do you do every day?
 - c. What does leadership look like at home?
 - d. What advice would you give your 20 year-old self about leadership?
 - e. What is your current leadership focus?
2. What have been your experiences with the cycle of conviction, confession, commitment and collapse?
3. What's the difference between that cycle and the cycle of conviction, confession, control of the Spirit and cleansing by Christ?
4. In what areas of your life are you currently experiencing the cleansing process of Christ? What areas are you convicted of that you need to confess and surrender to the Spirit?
5. In your parenting or leadership roles, where can you be more intentional about helping others to turn over their challenges to control of the Spirit and the cleansing of Jesus?