1. Adam mentioned that lists of names in the Bible help to give it credibility as a historical document and provided important genealogical and inspirational records for future generations. Do you know anything about your ancestors and has it impacted your life in any way?
2. Some of the people in Israel sacrificed a lot to move into Jerusalem and rebuild that city for God. What types of things have you sacrificed or could you sacrifice to serve God and others?
3. Adam said the main takeaway for this message was that leaders will go where others won't to accomplish a vision. Have you sensed God leading you to take any steps that might seem unusual for others so that you can better serve Him?
4. The four main areas of outreach vision for our church are events, partners, teams, and missional living. Which of these seems the hardest for Christians to engage in?
5. What does missional living mean to you? Why should followers of Jesus be concerned with living that way?
6. What was your biggest takeaway from this week's message and how do you plan to respond to it?
